Business casual: Business-casual dress can be defined as a middle ground between business formal wear and casual wear. Business casual is an ambiguously-defined dress code that has been adopted by many professional and white-collar workplaces. It entails neat yet informal attire and is generally more casual than informal business attire but more formal than casual or smart casual attire.

6. GUIDELINES ON DRESS CODE

Employees need to dress in a professional and presentable way, to promote and reflect the Municipality's image and value.

Dress must be clean, neat and tidy, in good repair and should fit correctly, i.e. clothing that is not oversized or undersized. Where officials are required to attend high level meetings such as Council and/or Mayoral Committee meetings, to represent the Municipality in court or to engage clients in high level meetings or proceedings, they are required to be appropriately dressed for the occasion.

Clothing that reveals too much bare skin of the chest area (cleavage), back, stomach and underwear/clothing that is see-through, or an observable lack of underwear, is not appropriate in the workplace.

Any clothing that has words, slogans, terms, or pictures that constitutes hate speech, infringes the rights and dignity of others, or is deliberately provocative is not appropriate. Any clothing that has words, terms or pictures that may be offensive to other employees is unacceptable. This includes images that are political or religious in nature, are sexually provocative, use profanity or are insulting to other employees. If there are compelling reasons for an employee to wear clothing representing any political party during official hours, the employee should cover the political logo in the premises of the Municipality.
